

Communications Workers of America

Frontier Extension Bargaining Report #2

June 29, 2021 5:30 pm

---

Communications Workers of America and Frontier Communications have agreed in principle to a two-year extension of the collective bargaining agreement covering employees in West Virginia and Virginia. The current agreement is set to expire August 7, 2021.

Details of the agreement will be provided for membership review. The agreement is subject to ratification by the members of the bargaining unit.