May 12, 2017

CWA/Frontier Bargaining Report #5

At the onset of bargaining, the Union expressed our priorities for bargaining are job security, benefits, retirement, and maintaining our members' standard of living. We expressed that we take seriously our role in building a strong Company and our commitment to making the Company successful.

At today's meeting, the Company advised the Union its focus is to weaken job security. The Company also expressed its goal is to reduce healthcare costs.

The Company has yet to provide any detailed proposals regarding any of these topics.

Stay tuned. Going forward, we will provide a weekly bargaining update.
